The feature is named Springvale Township School and it is located in Oriska Township. This building is a large, one room school moved to the current location to be used as a bar. The foundation is poured concrete. The hip roof is covered with asphalt shingles, also the gable roof of the old entry. There is no chimney. The soffits are closed. There is corbel corner trim and other trim board high on the exterior walls. This can be best seen on the picture of the west side. There windows are all covered, it looks like there were 6 or 7 windows on the wall that faces south. Some areas look to be filled in openings. There is a solid core entry door on the south wall. On the east end of the school there is an entry with the door filled in. Also two more windows on the school are covered.

The building is large, measures about 40 feet east to west and 24 feet north to south. The entry is 2 feet by 8 feet. At the entry the gable roof has some decorative shingles under the peak and more corbels. It is very fancy in decoration. Remnants of the bell tower are still on the entry roof.
