The feature is what remains of a one room prairie school sitting on a concrete foundation. The roof is bowed in the middle and it covered with some planking and no shingles. The bulding mesures 16 1/2 feet east to west by 32 feet north to south. No chimney.

The exterior walls are 6 inch wood lap with 4 inch wood corner trim and are bowing out on the east side and in on the west. There are openings for windows on both the east and west side, 3 openings each side. Also a window in the entry/shed on the south side with the entry door (missing) opening to the east. The entry is falling in at the southeast corner. Much of the roof has fallen in and the interior walls have been stripped. The remains of the floor show tongue and groove hardwood. At one point there was electricity.
