The feature is a one room prairie school on a concrete foundation sitting in a farm yard. Moved to this location to be used as a playhouse for children/grandchildren. The gable roof of the building is covered with asphalt shingles, no chimney remains. The soffits are closed. The building measures 30 feet east to west and 18 feet north to south.

The siding on the school is ribbed metal sheeting. There is a new entry door from a concrete pad. To either side of the door are two sets of small, two pane windows. There is one double hung, two over two, window on the north wall and 5 double hung, two over two, windows on the south side, all glass intact. The interior is one big room with walls and ceiling covered with beadboard. The floor is tongue and groove hardwood under carpet. Light fixtures suggest electricity.
