This feature is simple prairie school with 6 inch wood lap siding and 6 inch wood trimmed corners. 8 inch wide boards trim the peaks of the school and entry just under the roof. The roof has asphalt shingles on now but will be getting a new metal roof soon. An entry on the west end of the building provides access to the school. The walls are uncovered to the studs in the entry. There is a wood door into the entry and another door into the main body of the school. This school was moved from Sheridan County in the mid 1990's. Three double hung windows on both the north and south side have glass intact.

This building measures 30 feet east to west and 18 feet 4 inches north to south with a 10 foot by 10 foot entry on the west end of the building.

Inside the school there is painted wall board above wainscoting on the walls and the floor is tongue and groove. Blackboards were located on the east wall and around the corner to the south wall to the window. There were more black board located between the east middle windows on both side of the room. There is electricity today. On the southwest outside corner of the school there is a metal ring for tying up a hours.

According to Sheridan County school records this school closed in 1957.
