1. Feature Description, Integrity, Eligibility:

This feature is a one room school located on a farm site. The gable roofs of the school and the entry are covered with wood shakes and it is showing holes. There is some metal capping on the school and capping on the entry with a finial. A flagpole sits at the south peak of the school roof. The chimney is gone. The soffits are open.

The siding on the school is stucco. An entry is located at the west end of the school with a 5 panel door giving access. There is a transom above the door with intact glass. A bank of 7 double hung windows runs along the entire south side of the school. Some of the windows have glass and some are covered with plywood. There is a small window, no glass, on the south wall of the east shed. A four panel wood door gives entry into the school room. A transom above this door has broken glass and is covered with plywood. The walls and ceiling of the school room are finished with wallboard. The floors are tongue and groove hard wood with some holes. There is wainscoting. Light fixtures indicate the presence of electricity. There is an old coal/wood nonfunction stove sitting in the school. It has a decorative stove surround. The blackboards have been removed. This building is used for storage.
